RE: Retraction of Termination of Membership & Cease and Desist Notice of Adam Rakunas

Dear Mr. Houston,

I am pleased to inform you that the Wilshire/Montana Neighborhood Coalition (the "Coalition") has agreed to unconditionally retract its termination of membership (the "Membership Termination") of your client, Adam Rakunas ("Mr. Rakunas"). The basis for the retraction is based solely upon Mr. Rakunas' statements that he did not participate in the unlawful attempted election of June 9, 2012 (the "Attempted Election"). Furthermore, your representation that Mr. Rakunas "strongly believes in the mission of Wilmont and the importance of public participation in community matters" demonstrates that Mr. Rakunas' intentions are in good faith.

The Coalition terminated Mr. Rakunas' membership because: (1) the Coalition reasonably believed that Mr. Rakunas participated in the Attempted Election, and (2) Mr. Rakunas made statements to the press that indicated he participated in the Attempted Election. The June 9, 2012 meeting at which the Attempted Election occurred was chaotic. As a result, it was difficult for the Coalition to independently confirm Mr. Rakunas' attendance. The Coalition formally apologizes to Mr. Rakunas for its mistaken Membership Termination. The Coalition hopes that Mr. Rakunas will continue to be involved with its activities, and contribute to its mission in a positive manner. On July 27, 2012 the Coalition will release a public statement to the press announcing the retraction of Mr. Rakunas' Membership Termination.

Sincerely,

Becki Kammerling
